The Clerk is directed to send a courtesy copy of the Amended Complaint to the Washington State Attorney General's Office Criminal Justice Division and, the Clerk is directed to effect service as provided below.

(1) Service by United States Marshal.

It is hereby ORDERED that the United States Marshal shall send the following to each named Defendant for whom there is a filled out service form by first class mail: a copy of the Amended Complaint and of this Order, two copies of the Notice of Lawsuit and Request for Waiver

ORDER - 1

3 Clerk shall assemble the necessary documents to effect service.

4 (2) Response Required

5 Defendants shall have thirty (30) days within which to return the enclosed Waiver of 6 Service of Summons. Each defendant who timely returns the signed Waiver shall have sixty (60)
7 days after the date designated on the Notice of Lawsuit to file and serve an answer or a motion
8 directed to the complaint, as permitted by Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

9 Any defendant who fails to timely return the signed Waiver will be personally served with a 10 summons and complaint, and may be required to pay the full costs of such service, pursuant to Rule
11 4(d)(2). A defendant who has been personally served shall file an answer or motion permitted 12 under Rule 12 within thirty (30) days after service.

13 (3) Filing and Service by Parties, Generally.

14 All original documents and papers submitted for consideration by the court in this case, are 15 to be filed with the Clerk of this court. The originals of all such papers shall indicate in the upper 16 right-hand corner the name of the Magistrate Judge to whom the copies are to be delivered. The 17 papers shall be accompanied by proof that such documents have been served upon counsel for the 18 opposing party (or upon any party acting pro se). The proof shall show the day and manner of 19 service and may be written acknowledgment of service, by certificate of a member of the bar of this 20 court, or by affidavit of the person who served the papers.

21 (4) Motions.

22 Any request for court action shall be set forth in a motion, properly filed and served. The 23 motion shall include in its caption (immediately below the title of the motion) a designation of the 24 Friday upon which the motion is to be noted upon the court's calendar. That date shall be the third
25 Friday following filing of the motion (fourth Friday for Motions for Summary Judgment). All 26 briefs and affidavits in opposition to any motion shall be filed and served not later than 4:30 p.m. on 27 the Monday immediately preceding the Friday appointed for consideration of the motion. If a party 28

1 fails to file and serve timely opposition to a motion, the court may deem any opposition to be 2 without merit. The party making the motion may file, not later than 4:30 p.m. on the Friday 3 designated for consideration of the motion, a response to the opposing party's briefs and affidavits.

4 (5) Motions for Summary Judgment

5 If one of the parties files a motion for summary judgment pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil 6 Procedure 56, the opposing party should acquaint him/herself with Rule 56. Rule 56 requires a 7 nonmoving party to submit affidavits or other evidence in opposition to a motion for summary 8 judgment if the moving party has shown the absence of issues of material fact and an entitlement to 9 judgment as a matter of law. A nonmoving party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials 10 of prior pleadings. Rather, successful opposition to a motion for summary judgment requires the 11 nonmoving party to set forth, through affidavits or other evidence, specific facts showing a genuine
12 issue for trial. Failure by the nonmoving party to oppose a summary judgment motion or to present 13 counter evidence could result in the court accepting the moving party's evidence as the truth, and 14 entering final judgment in favor of the moving party without a full trial. Rand v. Rowland, 113 F.3d 15 1520 (9th Cir. 1997).
